Photo by Walter Swift

Fans of all ages were on hand at Saugus Speedway Saturday.

Racing: Hooper Wins At Saugus Speedway

Continued from pg. 6

The battle of the race was for third as Wilson and Kirby tried to hold off a pack of cars. Coming out of the final corner down to the finish, Kirby made a move on Wilson for third only to spin. Wilson held on for third ahead of Beckers and Foster.

Mike Stuart posted his first oval victory Friday night and Rick Crow scored his second straight figure 8 triumph in the Hobby Stock events at Saugus. Othger winners included Brian Kelley in the oval B-main Pat Dennison in the foreign stock and Jeff Holmes in jalopies.

Shanon Flavin paced the early laps of the 20-lap hobby stock oval A-main with Willie Melvin moving up into second and Stuart into third by the fifth lap. Melvin and Stuart passed Flavin on lap nine and Stuart surged past Melvin for the lead.

After a yellow flag, Terry Custer took over second and he and Stuart pulled away from the rest of the field. Stuart held off Custer to the finish for the win.